Revelation 20

Opening question: What one thing would you like your obituary to say about you and why?

Scripture study:

- Read Revelation 20:1-6. What are some questions you have around these verses? Work through the many pieces to this puzzle of Christ's return, such as; what happens to Satan, who are the ones on the thrones, what is the first resurrection, etc. What would it be like to live in a world without the influence of Satan? What is one application from this section?
- Read Revelation 20:7-10. What takes place after Satan is released and what does this say about the problem of evil? How is it that after living in a perfect environment there are those who follow Satan? What can environment do and not do? Share one way you have witnessed God changing your heart.
- Read Revelation 20:11-15. What are the books (scrolls) mentioned here? What is the difference between them? How is this judgment different than the judgment spoken of 2 Corinthians 5:6-10? What is it about sin that requires this kind of punishment?
- Further application: How does reading chapter 20 speak to living our lives in this present age? Read also Matthew 18:1-4 & 19:27-30 for some further principles on promised rewards for Jesus' followers. What kind of rulers is Jesus looking for?
